

Statement that Job Impact Statement is not required

The proposed rule should not have an adverse impact on jobs. The proposal simply corrects a typographical error in naming the prior authorization request in the text of the regulation.